ARREST MADE IN JULY CRAVEN TERRACE SHOOTING

New Bern police have arrested a man wanted for shooting a construction worker in Craven Terrace on July 15, 2009.

Calvin Mark WILSON, 08/28/1984, of Brooklyn, NY, was arrested and charged with Assault with a Deadly Weapon with Intent to Kill Inflicting Serious Injury for shooting Nassar Ture' Mack, 02/17/1981, while he was pouring new sidewalks between the P2 and Q2 buildings of the Housing Authority complex. Mack was treated and released from the hospital following the shooting.

New Bern detectives located WILSON in the Pamlico County jail last week, where he was being held under the name of Kelvin Johnson. Throughout the investigation, New Bern police had identified a number of different aliases and fictitious names for WILSON. He was returned to the Pamlico County jail under a $250,000 bond.

WILSON was also wanted for questioning by NYPD detectives for information about a homicide that took place there.

Over the past two years, detectives from the New Bern Police Department's Major Case Unit have been working with NYPD investigators to identify and arrest individuals who regularly travel between Brooklyn, Pamlico County and New Bern, and are responsible for violent crimes in all three jurisdictions. In addition to WILSON, the collaboration has led to the arrest of Curtis Trevore BELL for a November 2007 murder in Craven Terrace, and also his brother Brandon Jamar BELL, who was arrested for a shooting in Craven Terrace in May 2009.

The New Bern Police Department is committed to Community Policing. Citizens are encouraged to become a "Partner in Policing," by reporting suspected illegal activity to the New Bern Police Department's TIPS line at (252) 636-5034 or the Craven County Crime Stoppers line at 633-5141.

For additional information, please contact Beth Stevenson, Public Information Officer at the New Bern Police Department at (252) 672-4211.
