DEADLY WRECK

At about 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, December 3, officers responded to a wreck at the intersection of Simmons Street, Oaks Road, and Holly Street. Upon arrival, officers found a late model, black Chrysler PT Cruiser and a gold Chevrolet Malibu had collided. The Malibu was overturned.

The male driver of the Malibu was pronounced dead on scene. Officers have identified him and are trying to reach his family. He was not wearing a seatbelt. Officers have determined the car was stolen out of Goldsboro. The driver of the Cruiser was taken to Carolina East Medical Center, treated and released with no serious injuries.

Several witnesses reported seeing the Malibu traveling north on Simmons Street and speeding through the stop sign, then colliding with the Cruiser. Officers say alcohol may have been a factor in the crash.
